—INTERNATIONAL—

Vladimir Lenin said, “Give me four years to teach the children, and the seed I have sown will never be uprooted.” The Soviet Union had 72 years of Communism to try and make Lenin’s godless philosophies stick. In Exodus 9:16 God tells Pharaoh, “But I have raised you up for this very purpose, that I might show you my power and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth” (NIV). Lenin was a modern-day Pharaoh, unwittingly doing a work for God. Through Lenin’s influence the Soviet Union forced 15 different countries, 21 republics, and over 200 distinct people groups to learn and speak the Russian language. Today instead of translating the Global Royal Rangers curriculum into 200 languages, we’ve only had to translate it into one—Russian.

Royal Rangers is one of the fastest-growing ministries throughout Eurasia. Already Eurasia Royal Rangers has made an impact in several war-torn Muslim republics in this region. National believers are moving forward, touching lives with the truth, love, and power of Jesus Christ. The Global Royal Rangers curriculum is evangelizing, equipping and empowering the lives of boys and girls who have been handed absolutely nothing in life.

Eurasia Royal Rangers is about the future. This ministry has the potential to reach far more souls than Communism murdered. In 8 years, today’s 12-year-olds will be in the universities. In 16 years they will be husbands and wives, dads and moms! In 24 years they will hold the keys to the world’s largest stockpile of nuclear and biological weapons. Our hope is that by 2034, if Jesus hasn’t returned yet, there will be a multitude of godly leaders throughout Eurasia who were impacted by your prayers, by your giving, and by the ministry of Eurasia Royal Rangers.

“For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring Word of God” (NIV, 1 Peter 1:23).

Planting truly imperishable seed,

Eurasia Royal Rangers Ministry Team

Official Launch of Royal Rangers in Malawi

September was a historic month for the Royal Rangers program in the African nation of Malawi. On September 4 the Malawi Assemblies of God officially launched Royal Rangers. Three days later they conducted their first Advanced National Training Camp (ANTC).

The official launch was nothing short of amazing. Over 100 Rangers, both boys and girls, from all regions of Malawi participated in the launch ceremony. It was a colorful and exciting event, filled with powerful original music and dramatic choreography prepared by a Malawi Ranger leader who also serves as producer for a Christian radio station. Dr. Lazarus Chakwera, president of the Assemblies of God in Malawi, and members of his executive staff presided over the launch. Also in attendance was Bishop Alick Mbewe, deputy general superintendent of Zambia.

Dr. Lazarus spoke to the crowd saying, "What I have witnessed today is, in fact, something that will grow into a large movement across this nation." He later encouraged the Ranger boys and girls: "We look to you children to bring the revival that is needed."

The international training staff was comprised of David Craun, Dennis Molnar, and David Jenkins from the United States; Patrick Kawe and Stephen Macharia from Kenya; and Andrew Whitman, the Royal Rangers International liaison to Africa. This was Patrick Kawe's fifth trip to Malawi, which earned him the nickname Phire (which means "mountain" or "rock of strength") from the Malawi Rangers. This team was shadowed by a group of Malawian Ranger leaders who are now prepared to lead future ANTCs. God put together a diverse mix of talents and abilities in both the international training staff and the Malawi shadow staff. Thirty-six leaders successfully completed the ANTC.

Malawi is now in a position to positively influence some of its Central African neighbors—such as Tanzania, Zambia, and Zimbabwe—with the Royal Rangers ministry. With that in mind, Mathias Kawerama, Men's Fellowship director of Malawi, was named the Royal Rangers coordinator-designate for Central Africa.

As a result of hard work and investments prior to the official launch, Malawi now has 65 Royal Rangers outposts and 300 leaders. This combination of trained leaders and growing outposts signifies that literally thousands of boys and girls can be reached for Christ.
